CHRISTINA

OVERVIEW

The Doral Intrigue 32 is an elegant Canadian-built cruiser, recognised for its build quality, careful finish and level of comfort on board. Its modified-V hull strikes a balanced compromise between ride comfort, stability and performance, well suited to Mediterranean conditions.

This particular unit, named CHRISTINA and built in 2007, stands out for its recently renewed propulsion: one of the two 250 hp Mercury Diesel 4.2 L engines has been replaced and now shows 0 hours, while the second has recorded approximately 300 hours.

With 500 hp in total and sterndrive transmissions, the Doral Intrigue 32 retains genuine performance without compromising comfort. The bow thruster makes harbour manoeuvring and tight berths considerably easier.

On deck, the cockpit is a true living space: Flexiteek decking, table, cushions, shower and boarding ladder. The bimini and cockpit cover allow it to be enjoyed out of the sun.

Below, the layout is warm and practical, well suited to family outings or days out with friends. The galley features two refrigerators, a microwave, a sink and a hot water system. Reverse-cycle air conditioning with heating keeps the interior comfortable in every season.

The boat lies at the Vieux-Port in Cannes, where a berth may be available subject to agreement with the harbour office. VAT paid.

KEY FEATURES

- Renewed Propulsion, Immediate Peace of Mind

With a Mercury Diesel engine showing zero hours and the second displaying approximately 300 hours only, the purchaser benefits from virtually new propulsion on an already established unit, without bearing the cost of re-engining.

- Onboard living equipment without compromise

Reversible air conditioning, dual refrigeration, hot water and a fully equipped galley give CHRISTINA the interior comfort level of a superior cruiser segment yacht, allowing for extended getaways throughout the year on the Mediterranean.

- Immediate Possession in the Heart of the Riviera

Delivered with VAT paid, located at the Vieux-Port in Cannes with potentially available berth, CHRISTINA frees you from all the fiscal and logistical formalities that typically delay a first voyage at sea.
